

GOVERNOR SPEAKS AT WOMAN'S CLUB

State's Executive Will Deliver Address on Robert E. Lee To-Morrow.

MISS JOHNSTON IS AT HOME

She and Miss Eloise Johnston Return From the Bahamas.

A Captive of Winter.

"Come thou South and blow upon my garden, that the spices thereof may flow out,"—Solomon's Song.
Come thou South, my garden lies silent and waiting, enchanted with sleep; The Frost-King who bound her in chains of his forging, her beauty to keep.
Saw her bloom flee away as the sun on earth's hills when the morn-clouds weep.

She dreams of the touch of a hand that in pity her freedom will make;
Of the bliss of a kiss that in longing and loving, her life will awake.
When the rising of life as the dawn of a day o'er her heart will break.

Wilt thou come, tender South, and with the breath of thy mouth o'er my garden blow?
She will stir at thy touch and give fragrance to thee—she will love thee so That flowers, like deeds in the lives of the pure, on her breast will glow.
—Edith L. Smith, in April Delineator.

A Touch of Spring.

The soft south airs of the past week have set the flowers a-blooming. The flower-vendors' row on Sixth Street is bright with the colors of sweet-smelling purple violets, red and white and blue hyacinths, yellow jonquills and white and gold narcissi, to say nothing of gorgeously tinted tulips.

A few more mild days and the countryside will be a-bloom with the pink and white waves of peach and apple blossoms and the drifted snow of the cherry, pear and plum.

In the woods the birds are building, green frouds are breaking through the mold and honeysuckle and dog-wood are making ready to put on their spring attire. Everywhere the great garden of Nature is stirring with new life. Life that shortly will be evidenced in the emerald hue of leafage and the brilliant dyes of a thousand petals that unfold along its borders.

March, the boldest, has been so encouraging that the world of this year has only been able to enjoy sunshine and blue skies at his hands. "Ideas" have come and gone, and if one looks closely, one may find that the alders are tasseling, the willow hanging out its silver plush, and the wild grape its "scarlet thorn."

In two weeks more March will doff his cap and stand aside to permit the passing of April's Lady, with her little of green and yellow upon which tears and smiles are ever striving for mastery.

Governor Montague to Lecture.
Governor Montague will lecture before the Woman's Club to-morrow evening at 8:15 o'clock on "Robert E. Lee." Members are entitled to invite gentlemen as escorts. The interest of the subject and the personality of the speaker require no word of commendation to enable a Richmond audience to understand why he is before them and to show their appreciation by their presence.

Benefit of Summer Rest.
Rear-Admiral Harne Webster, of the United States Navy will give his popular lecture on Japan at Mechanics' Institute March 20th, 8 P. M., for the benefit of Summer Rest. Tickets may be obtained at the Woman's Exchange, Rosemary Library and St. Andrews Library.

Friendship Social Club.

A delightful meeting of the Friendship Social Club was held last Thursday evening at the home of Miss Lottie Ligon, 1102 1-2 Beverly Street. Miss Marie Gillman entertained the merry party with some of the most popular music on the piano, after which fruits were served, followed by the singing of songs which were enjoyed until a late hour, when the band of merry-makers adjourned to their various homes. Among those present were Misses Irene Bennett, Glendora Clark, Marie Gillman, Bessie Newcombe, Myrtle Minor, Lottie Ligon, Fannie Pezans, Alexis Ligon and Mr. and Mrs. A. C.
Ligon, Messrs. Eddie H. Ligon, Allen
P. Beauchamp, Robert E. Gregory, Wilton

N. Wharton, Warren Doggett, J. Frank Luck and Roger Nelson.

Burnett-Cameron.

A special, dated Thursday, to the New York Herald from Fort Ethan Allen, Vermont, says: The happy ending of a romance which had its origin at the recent army manoeuvres in Virginia, where they met for the first time, occurred at this garrison this evening, when Miss Frances Hawks Cameron became the bride of Lieutenant Charles Burnett, Fifteenth Cavalry.
The wedding was the social event of the season at the garrison. It took place in the new gymnasium, which was tastefully decorated with flags, and a beautiful chancel was formed of palms and Easter lilies arranged in a semicircle. Just above the altar were draped together an American flag and the colors of the Fifteenth Cavalry. Trumpets announced the coming of the bride party, which entered to the strains of the "Lohengrin" Wedding March. The ushers were Lieutenants Clifton Norton, Victor S. Foster, Wiley P. Mangum, Milton G. Holliday, Arthur J. Lynch and Scott Baker. Two pretty flower girls were Misses Floy Rodman Barnhardt and Dorothy Walker.
Misses Katherine and Isabel Gresham, Grace Russell and Edith Hoyle were the bridesmaids, and Jean Cameron, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor.
The bridegroom and his best man, Lieutenant Samuel W. Robertson, were in full cavalry dress uniform.

After the ceremony the company repaired to the large hall above, where supper was served, and the bride followed a time-honored custom in the army of cutting the cake with the bridegroom's sword.
The bride is the daughter of the late General and Mrs. Francis H. Cameron, of Richmond, Va. She is a grandniece of the late Admiral William S. Kirkland, United States Navy.

Masonic Home Auxiliary.

A most interesting meeting of the Masonic Home Auxiliary was held in the Temple on Tuesday, with the president, Mrs. W. S. Murray, in the chair.
Reports from the various committees indicated gratifying progress. The new members elected are Mrs. A. T. Miller, Mrs. W. D. Cobb, Mrs. J. H. Allen, Miss Mary Cheatwood, Mrs. J. E. Phillips, Mrs. Frank Barrows and Mrs. James Atkinson.

The auxiliary will celebrate Arbor Day, March 25th, at the Masonic Home. Through the kindness of the Passenger and Power Company, all vines, shrubs and small trees labeled "Masonic Home" and placed on the yellow street cars, will be carried to the Home free of charge that day. The ladies decided to hold a four-days' festival at the temple during Easter week. Ruth and Aremie Chapters of the Order of the Eastern Star were extended a cordial invitation to cooperate.

Shadd" (Kipling Dances), Courtlander's

By request, he played his "Way Down in Dixie."

"The rooms were filled with visitors.

count of her absence in the family. She

To Speak in New York.

United States Senator Hon. John W.
Daniel will be one of the principal speakers at the dinner of the Democratic Club of New York city, at the Waldorf-Astoria, on the birthday of Thomas Jefferson, April 13th, when he will respond to the toast, "Thomas Jefferson." It is expected that this will be one of the largest and most important gatherings of Democrats of national reputation that ever took place.

Miss Johnston Returned.

Miss Mary Johnston and Miss Eloise Johnston have returned from the Bahamas, where they have spent the winter, and will be at home to their friends each Friday afternoon from 5 to 7, No.
113 East Grace Street.

Piano and Violin Recital.

The musical event of the week will be the recital at the Woman's Club next Saturday to be given by Miss Stella Lipman, of Washington, pianist, and Mrs.
Horace Dillard Hequembourg, of this city, violinist.

Miss Lipman, who is a very highly gifted musician, received her training under Albina Gorno and Franz Hummel, of Berlin, and is a medalist of the Cincinnati College of Music.
Mrs. Hequembourg has frequently played before Richmond audiences and has never failed to delight them. She was a pupil of Haller, in Berlin, and of Isaye in Brussels, and does her masters and herself great credit.

A Japanese Evening.

The home of the Rev. J. Calvin Stewart, 103 West Grace Street, was decorated in picturesque lanterns, parasols and draped with the Japanese and American colors for a "Japanese Evening," on Friday last. The entertainment was given for the building fund of the Church of the Covenant and furnished a goodly amount of enjoyment for little and big people who were present.

Mr. Sasakura, a Japanese student at Union Theological Seminary, was the center of attraction during the evening.
Through his fellow student, Mr. McCaslin, he made a charming address of welcome and taught Americans how to play the Japanese "Thunder" and "Blind" game. He and Mr. McCaslin sang the national hymn of Japan.

The girls serving refreshments were daintily attired in Japanese costumes.
Among the noticeably pretty kimono were the imported gowns worn by Mrs.
Stewart and Mrs. MacLean.

The evening was a success in every way, as is everything undertaken by the people of the Church of the Covenant, who are indefatigable workers and know no failure or defeat, and they chose an able assistant in their Japanese friend and co-worker, Mr. Sasakura.

Mrs. Taylor Honored.
Mrs. William H. Taylor, of Norfolk, Va., was the guest of honor at the handsome luncheon and card party given Thursday afternoon at the Cockeysville Country Club, by Miss Margaret Wright, of Kalamazoo, near Oakleyville, Md. The entertainment was the second given since

Exquisite French Millinery

Distinctive, Original, Exclusive---the Thoughts of the Masters.

THE Spring Fashion Symphony is set to the keynote of Louis XV. and Louis XIV. styles —the modes of the brilliant Madame De Pompadour and the beautiful Marie Antoinette.
So hats are graceful, charming, picturesque, dan-tely feminine. But, though Paris may borrow the theme from the historic past, her genius infuses into its variations the glow of fresh, new, beautiful present-day fashion. So the Opening Displays will reveal distinct fashion changes!

EVEN La Parisienne of fashion has no lovelier chapeaux to choose from than this Opening Exhibit will afford—Hats from the great artist-designers who sway the sceptre of the World's Millinery modes. The chief contributors are:

Mme. Georgeatte,
